From: Steve Leimberg's Estate Planning Newsletter
Subject: Mary Vandenack, Martin Shenkman & Jonathan Blattmachr on Managing the Remote Law Practice and Other Practical Administrative Considerations during Coronavirus

“By this time, most of us have been working entirely or primarily remotely for at least a couple weeks. While we were hoping the remote work was short-term, social distancing guidelines have been expanded for much of the country. Developing effective remote practice strategies has become a matter of business survival. But remote working in the current coronavirus environment requires more than merely accessing your firm network or cloud-based document management system or hosting web meetings. This newsletter will explore both technical and practical, even mundane, steps and tips, that may be useful to practitioners in this trying time.”

We close the week with timely commentary by Mary E. Vandenack, Martin Shenkman and Jonathan Blattmachr that examines the issues raised by managing a remote law practice.
